SHAKŌ-BA

The concept of Shakō-Ba originates from the Japanese word 社交 (Shakō), meaning social intercourse or socializing. This is a place to bond and celebrate relationships. Fret not if you have no friends, you can make some here! If you're lucky, you could leave with some too *wink.

Our staff won't bite, just wave and flash us (a smile) to get our attention and we'll be right with you!

A close-up photograph of several pieces of White Fish Mentai Tempura Maki. One piece is being held by black chopsticks, showing its golden-brown, crispy tempura coating and the white fish filling topped with a slice of mentai (mentaiko) and a small green garnish. The pieces are arranged on a light green ceramic plate. In the foreground, a small blue and white patterned dish contains a dark brown dipping sauce. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the same dish on a wooden table.
